rAge 2009 Expo Tickets Available at the Door

Countdown to South Africa's Biggest Gaming and Technology Expo Heats Up

Tickets to the seventh rendition of the rAge 2009 Expo will be available at the doors of the Coca-Cola Dome in Northgate at a price of R50 per person, R80 for the weekend or R160 for a family of two adults and two children per day. The rAge 2009 Expo will be rocking Jo'burg from 2 – 4 October 2009 featuring a blisteringly hot selection of the latest, chart-topping and high-tech gaming and technology equipment available, software, hardware, gaming apparel and accessories, special offers, trading cards and gear to name a few. You name it: We've got it!

Fans have been calling the rAge offices after a press announcement stated that the tickets to the NAG LAN @ rAge were sold out within two days of opening at Computicket, under the false impression that tickets to the 3-day exhibition were also sold out. "Tickets to rAge are most definitely still available and will only go on sale at the door from 2-4 October 2009. The NAG LAN @ rAge is just one component of the entire rAge offering and these tickets have unfortunately already sold out but there is still plenty to see and do at the expo," says Michael James, rAge 2009 Organiser.

Supporters and followers of rAge 2009 do not need to worry, as tickets to the actual Expo are still available at the door at the Coca-Cola Dome in Northgate for the duration of the much anticipated rAge 2009 Expo. So be sure to make your way down to South Africa's biggest and best gaming and technology expo to get in on all the action.
